Superintendent. May 10-tieo NEW YORK, May 8, 180 . Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

Christopher Adams, complamant, James Guthrie. Amos Adams, Isane N. Comstock, Samuei Byington, and Richard Wallach,

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause 1 states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government, agreeing to supply the government with five mil-lion of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January, A.D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong. the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of four thousand dellars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albanyand State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The ill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock as signed their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent, on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an inje against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defend-ants, or their representatives, and the defend-ants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hun-dred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint against the defendants, shall be taken for con-N. HECKERS FARINA, prepared ex-pressly for families, a delicate and appropriate food for all seasons, and one of the most economical, nutritious, and wholesome prepara tions ever brought to the table, eminently com-bining the gratification of the palate with ample and healthful sustenance of the body.

Strictly speaking, Heckers' Farina is neither stringent nor laxative, but restorative, strengening the digestive and absorbent system. In disordered bowels, diarrhae, dysentery, and even in cases of cholera, when food is deemed admissible by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively used in hospitals and private practice. The preservation of health or the prevention of sickness is at least as important as the curing of disease. People in health should therefore use Heckers Farina freely, as common food, to preserve the i

INVIGORATING CORDIAL, PURELY Vegetable in its composition. This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Roots, which have been found after years of ex perience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an effica cious remedy, it is also known to be of that char-acter on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Hæmorrhages Disordered Sterility, Menstruction, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for female after confinement, abortion or miscarriage, thu cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physics prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where a ronce medicine is required, it will be found equal if not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is one of the most invaluable medicines in the many cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness.

Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated water, is inconvenient and very difficult to give by those obstructions which females are liable to
